Investment Philosophy

The Retire Funds seek to balance capital growth and preservation by constructing diversified multiple asset class portfolios that are customized to correspond to an individual's estimated date of retirement. There are six target date funds in the Retire Funds series: Income, 2015, 2025, 2035, 2045, and 2055. Each target date fund's asset allocation is designed to become more conservative and automatically adjust over time as the estimated retirement date approaches. Segal Rogerscasey's goal is to help individual investors save for retirement through one fund that combines a sophisticated and forward-looking asset allocation approach with institutionally-oriented and best-in-class investment managers.
